Principal’s News

WIN FOR WALLUMBILLA:
Wallumbilla School has won the trophy for best school display at the Roma Show (for the second time). A huge thank you goes to Vicki Brown and Karen Sainty who were responsible for the setting up of the display. Well done ladies!!

SHORT ABSENCE:
I will be away from school for a short break between 17th > 24th May. Mrs Deb Howse will be acting principal during this time. Please direct any queries to Mrs Howse during this period. I will be at the home game / Winterfest on Saturday 25th.

CHANGED ROLE:
Miss Grayson has recently won a position to train and work as a pedagogical coach across a number of Roma Cluster Schools. She will be away for training for this position on Thursday and Friday (16th / 17th May). When the position commences (towards the end of this term) Miss Grayson will work as Year 3 teacher here at Wallumbilla for 3 days each week and as pedagogical coach for 2 days per week.

THANK YOU:
We say thank you to Mrs Deanne Wilson for her time at Wallumbilla School over recent weeks. Mrs Wilson is a preservice teacher who has worked with the Yr 4/5 class and Mrs Dickson. She is completing her prac experience with us during this week. Mrs Wilson’s work and contributions have been very much valued here at Wallumbilla.

NAPLAN:
Our students in Years 3, 5, 7 & 9 commenced their NAPLAN tests today. Today’s tests are in grammar, punctuation, spelling and writing. Tomorrow students will complete the reading test. On Thursday the final tests are in numeracy. Students doing the tests were offered a light breakfast (toast, fruit and milo) at school today and this will be repeated tomorrow and Thursday. We are simply trying to ensure that their brains are ‘fully fuelled’ during the test period.

- Rugby League / Netball home game at Wallumbilla – Saturday May 25th (8.45am start)
